organizing fundraising activities to collect cash or materials that can be used in the construction of housing.

This is an organization that has been founded and directed by young professionals and succeeded in gathering all of Mexico together to foster the improvement of the quality of life for children and adolescents: Teletón.

Teletón is a project that has united the entire country; through values such as love, generosity, and solidarity it has caused by cleft lip and cleft palate. Our students help this organization economically by raising funds.

This is a non-profit organization that provides, along with the Jalisco Institute of Reconstructive Surgery “Dr. José Guerrerosantos” (IJCR), complete treatment (surgery, dental work, speech therapy, nutritional information, and psychological care) to children, adolescents and adults within Mexico who have facial deformations

ASFG Green Committee:

High school students are required to complete 100 service learning hours and can choose to work individually or in a group with the organization or project of their choice.

ALLERGY INTOLERANCE IN PETS:

This refugee is the home of 80 boys who have been rescued from risk living situations.

ASFG Green Committee:

High school students support and collaborate with the activities of this committee that has as its mission to educate and foster sustainable ecology in our community.

Hogar de los Niños Evangelina:

This shelter is a home for four to eighteen year old children who do not have a family.

Guadalajara and surrounding areas:

These homes are part of the network of work of Casa Hogar. They serve those who are most in need and provide attention to babies, children, and adolescents who are physically challenged.

La Huizachera

Eighth grade students installed the Huizachera community where they assisted the residents to make changes to improve their precarious living situation.

OTHER NEWS FROM MIDDLE SCHOOL

Cafetería

In the 2010-2011 school year. At the end of the year they donated $20,000 pesos to each of the Service Learning projects that the middle school students were involved with during the school year.

San José School

At this event, ASFG cleaning, maintenance, and security personnel can acquire many useful articles for themselves and their families at no cost.

El Pequeño Mundo Feliz y Pie Pequeño:

Fifth grade:

These are two day care centers for girls. High school students help teachers as well as provide individual tutoring for students who need additional academic support.

Fábrica de Niños Ciegos de Guadalajara A.C.

Fourth grade:

Many puppies found a home or received medical attention thanks to the project that the fourth grade students took on this year. They donated $4,000.00 pesos to the shelter.

Elementary School

First Grade:

Sueños y Esperanzas

(Eighth grade student) received the Brian Merrill Service Learning Award at the end of the school year. His teacher, Bill Cutler, commented, “Lexi works very well and uses an amazing sense of humor, sense of line, and sense of humility.

Other News from Middle School

Cafetería is the middle school cafeteria. At the end of the year they donated $20,000 pesos to each of the Service Learning projects that the middle school students were involved with during the school year.

Xtremely for the Community

This year they shared their academic and social story;

Veracruz Relief Fund

Hundreds of food, hygiene, and personal care items were collected and sent, through SEDESOL, to Veracruz; there, the cash was delivered during a live telethon to help the victims of Hurricane Féliz.

unforgettable moments

Escuela de Niñas Ciegas on stage at ASFG

Lemonade stand supporting Japan

High School

High school students are required to complete 200 service learning hours and can choose to work individually or in a group with the organization or project of their choice.

Allergy Intolerance in Pets

This refugee is the home of 80 boys who have been rescued from risk living situations.

ASFG Green Committee:

High school students support and collaborate with the activities of this committee that has as its mission to educate and foster sustainable ecology in our community.

Casa Hogar de los Niños Evangelina:

This shelter is a home for four to eighteen year old children who do not have a family.

Guadalajara and surrounding areas:

These homes are part of the network of work of Casa Hogar. They serve those who are most in need and provide attention to babies, children, and adolescents who are physically challenged.

La Huizachera

Eighth grade students installed the Huizachera community where they assisted the residents to make changes to improve their precarious living situation.

Other News from Middle School

Cafetería is the middle school cafeteria. At the end of the year they donated $20,000 pesos to each of the Service Learning projects that the middle school students were involved with during the school year.

San José School

At this event, ASFG cleaning, maintenance, and security personnel can acquire many useful articles for themselves and their families at no cost.

El Pequeño Mundo Feliz y Pie Pequeño:

Fifth grade:

These are two day care centers for girls. High school students help teachers as well as provide individual tutoring for students who need additional academic support.

Fábrica de Niños Ciegos de Guadalajara A.C.

Fourth grade:

Many puppies found a home or received medical attention thanks to the project that the fourth grade students took on this year. They donated $4,000.00 pesos to the shelter.

Elementary School

First Grade:

Sueños y Esperanzas

(Eighth grade student) received the Brian Merrill Service Learning Award at the end of the school year. His teacher, Bill Cutler, commented, “Lexi works very well and uses an amazing sense of humor, sense of line, and sense of humility.

Other News from Middle School

Cafetería is the middle school cafeteria. At the end of the year they donated $20,000 pesos to each of the Service Learning projects that the middle school students were involved with during the school year.

Xtremely for the Community

This year they shared their academic and social story;

Veracruz Relief Fund

Hundreds of food, hygiene, and personal care items were collected and sent, through SEDESOL, to Veracruz; there, the cash was delivered during a live telethon to help the victims of Hurricane Féliz.

unforgettable moments

Escuela de Niñas Ciegas on stage at ASFG

Lemonade stand supporting Japan

High School

High school students are required to complete 200 service learning hours and can choose to work individually or in a group with the organization or project of their choice.

Allergy Intolerance in Pets

This refugee is the home of 80 boys who have been rescued from risk living situations.

ASFG Green Committee:

High school students support and collaborate with the activities of this committee that has as its mission to educate and foster sustainable ecology in our community.

Casa Hogar de los Niños Evangelina:

This shelter is a home for four to eighteen year old children who do not have a family.

Guadalajara and surrounding areas:

These homes are part of the network of work of Casa Hogar. They serve those who are most in need and provide attention to babies, children, and adolescents who are physically challenged.

La Huizachera

Eighth grade students installed the Huizachera community where they assisted the residents to make changes to improve their precarious living situation.

Other News from Middle School

Cafetería is the middle school cafeteria. At the end of the year they donated $20,000 pesos to each of the Service Learning projects that the middle school students were involved with during the school year.

San José School

At this event, ASFG cleaning, maintenance, and security personnel can acquire many useful articles for themselves and their families at no cost.

El Pequeño Mundo Feliz y Pie Pequeño:

Fifth grade:

These are two day care centers for girls. High school students help teachers as well as provide individual tutoring for students who need additional academic support.

Fábrica de Niños Ciegos de Guadalajara A.C.

Fourth grade:

Many puppies found a home or received medical attention thanks to the project that the fourth grade students took on this year. They donated $4,000.00 pesos to the shelter.

Elementary School

First Grade:

Sueños y Esperanzas

(Eighth grade student) received the Brian Merrill Service Learning Award at the end of the school year. His teacher, Bill Cutler, commented, “Lexi works very well and uses an amazing sense of humor, sense of line, and sense of humility.

ASFG Whole School Projects

Gourmet Gala

ASFG teachers and administrators bring in new and used clothing, shoes, and household items for a garage sale. At this event, ASFG cleaning, maintenance, and security personnel can acquire many useful articles for themselves and their families at no cost.

Cheer Boxes

Beautiful Christmas boxes that have been carefully packed with food items and cleaning supplies are the gift for students, teachers, administrators, and parents have prepared for the ASFG cleaning, maintenance, and security staff. The Cheer Boxes are delivered during a festive pre-holiday celebration that is organized especially for them by the Parents’ Association.

Cash Collections and In-kind Donations

The entire ASFG community generously contributed to the following causes:

United Relief Fund

Hundreds of food, hygiene, and personal care items were collected and sent, through SEDESOL, to Veracruz; there, the cash was delivered during a live telethon to help the victims of Hurricane Féliz.

Imporant Information

This was a collection that was organized by the students of their own initiative ASFG students in all and many organizations and fundraising events to collect funds to help others which had been devastated by a category-4 hurricane.

BEFORE THE HURRICANE

They collected a total of $39,186,000 pesos and delivered them through the International Red Cross.

ASFG

This is a permanent fundraising effort at ASFG in support of the Educational Scholarship Fund. The Educational Scholarship Foundation provides financial assistance for talented students who wish to continue their studies at ASFG.

Thank you to all students, teachers, parents, administrators, friends and participating philanthropic organizations for being an integral part of the Service Learning Program at ASFG. Through the years, this program has been transforming the ASFG family into a truly caring community. Thank you!